

Have you ever imagined what it would be like to win a big lottery prize? Imagine if you won 50 million dollars how your life would change. If you had that much money, you could afford to build the house of your dreams wherever you want to live. In this writing exercise, you will describe the house of your dreams – how many rooms will it have, will it have a pool, gym, or garage complete with the music of Anne Murray? Will it have fancy gardens, a golf course, or a washroom? Perhaps it will have a games room, complete with the best video game of all time, Pong. When completing this exercise, you will use lots of descriptive words (adjectives) to give the reader a clear image of your dream home. Rather than using the same boring adjectives over and over, use “wow” words in your writing.

Two years ago, I had a day that will never forget. I had won the grand prize of the lottery which was 50 million dollars. I could not believe my eyes, I was filthy rich! My life would change forever!

After giving 10 million dollars to charity, I spent another 10 million dollars on the house of my dreams. I decided that I would build it in _____ because
