

Some options for Week seven

Read a Short Story or Article Up to 30 Minutes/ Day Until Complete

Students can read a short story, magazine article, or newspaper article (either online or in print) independently.

There are lots of short articles at: <http://www.kellygallagher.org/aowarchive> And short stories by teen at this link: <https://www.teenink.com/magazine>

As you read, ask yourself these questions:

- What new information did you learn?
- What do you think the author wants you to keep in mind or remember?

Movie Review Up to 30 Minutes/ Day Until Complete

Watch a movie you have been wanting to see.

Write a short review based on your viewing. OR Watch the movie and discuss it with friends via technology, using the same criteria.

You can find examples on: <https://www.common sense media.org/movie-reviews>

Movie reviews usually have a short summary of the story and characters.

They also include a recommendation for readers to either see or skip the movie.

Get Outdoors! OR Look Out Your Window

Up to 30 Minutes/ Day Until Complete

If you can, spend some time outside (or look out your window) and create a picture, and/or write about what you see, using the five senses to guide your writing.

- You may choose to write a short story, descriptive paragraph or a poem.
- Look closely, what do you notice that you may not have noticed before?
