Cereal Box Task #4

This box of cereal has come to life. Write a story about its adventures.

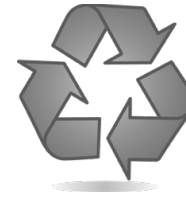

As a child, I was a voracious reader and quickly finished books, magazines, etc. I loved to read so much that I would even read the back of the cereal box at breakfast. I have always told my students that I didn't care WHAT they read, as long as they read daily. I am constantly telling them, "You can even read a cereal box!" I decided to make this statement true and voila' a teaching unit was born. I hope you and your students enjoy these activities. Maybe they will even inspire you to make a few of your own. After all, all you need is a few empty cereal boxes!
